This is September 13, and it is also Friday. Most anything could be expected of such a combination.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says that "what the Democratic party and the country need is another Samuel J. Tilden." If the party had such a man he'd no more than go through one campaign until some of the reorganizers who never vote the Democratic ticket would want to put him out.

It is noted by the Republican Boston Advertiser that "in those states where Republican conventions have been held this year the platform which have been adopted have not followed the lines laid down in advance by Senator Hanna and some other prominent Republicans. Hanna announces that in no case will Congress discuss any tariff questions. The platform call for an extension of the reciprocity policy. Hanna says the trusts are to be let alone. The platform says the opposite. Possibly Hanna may have the power to check legislation at Washington, for a time; but he cannot defeat the public sentiment which demands such legislation from either the Republican or the Democratic party." The platform may say all these things, but the meaning seems to be very much Senator Hanna's. There is more than one way of throwing a tub to the whale of public opinion.

WISE and Otherwise.

Gay, giddy college students coming soon.

The big pumpkin is now having its flapping.

No predictions have yet been made relative to when the Cherry st. bridge will be completed.

Fair fall weather tomorrow will make Akron stores busier than the traditional bee ever thought of being.

It will have been noticed how Chief Mertz has had some legislation rushed through while Uncle Mac was away.

The story that "a stranger, wearing a tall hat" has come to Akron with a force of men to erect a $16,000,000 hotel on the site of the old City Building cannot be verified.

Not being able to discover a relative of the assassin over in Youngstown, the enterprising correspondents there found a street car man who once heard some one say that the President would not live long.

That nothing has been said in the Cleveland papers during the past few days about the Everett Moore syndi-

If the woman at work should make answer to the other woman, she might, perhaps, say: "You never had to scrub and clean when your back ached so that it seemed that every movement would break it in two." It's bad enough for a woman to suffer. But when she must suffer and slave at the same time she reaches the limit of her endurance.
 Weak women who have been made strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, recommend it to others as a godsend. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.
 "I have been ailing some time now, being troubled with female weakness," writes Mrs. Wm. H. Johnson, of Avondale, Chester Co., Pa. "Every month I would have to lie on my back. I tried many different medicines and nothing gave me relief until I began Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I used two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These medicines have cured me. When I began your treatment I was not able to do very much, but now I do the work for my family of nine, and feel better today than I have for a year."
 Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache. They do not create the pill habit.

cate must not be taken to mean that the syndicate is not doing business at the old stand. Just wait until the Encampment is over.

"The milk dealers have an association which sustains prices," said the Observing Citizen. "Now they say that the Akron Pure Milk Co. is a 'trust,' and I'd really like to know if the association does not involve a few trust principles itself."

The announcement that "Rapid Fire" Griffin and the Devil were to fight four rounds at the corner of Market and Howard sts., is a mistake. A place has not yet been selected. "The Chicago papers," said Griffin, "declared that I had defeated the Devil in three rounds."

Today, having to introduce it a number of features that appeal with force to many of the believers of signs and superstitions will doubtless be spent in fear and apprehension by the superstitious. The fact of its being Friday is enough to make many watch themselves, but when the fact is coupled with it that it is the 13th of the month the superstitions have something real to think about.

"That doctor you go to see every day," said the boy who runs the elevator in a local office building to a gentleman who has been making daily calls at the office of a physician in this particular building, "must be on the bum."

"Why?" asked the gentleman in surprise.
 "Because every time you come out of his office you walk stiffer than when you went in," replied the youngster with a smile. "Maybe he's pulling your leg," he suggested, as the gentleman hobbled out of the cage.

STILL WE KEEP A-GOING.

Sorrows keen, and burning tears
 From the sad eyes flowing;
 Shadows from the coming years—
 Yet we keep a-going.
 'Neath the deep wings of the night
 Still we sleep and dream of light;
 Evermore a star's in sight—
 Still we keep a-going.

Hope is ever hovering nigh,
 Joy and Peace bestowing;
 Storms make rainbows in life's sky—
 Still we keep a-going.
 Never life is all unblest;
 Still we bear what God thinks best
 Till His kind voice whispers, "Rest,"
 Still we keep a-going!

ELECTED OFFICERS.

Fire Insurance Agents Close Meeting at Put-In-Bay.

Put-In-Bay, O., Sept. 13.—(Spl.)—At the close of the meeting of the National Association of Local Fire Insurance Agents the sentiment is that the association has strengthened itself visibly by the convention. Opposition to the report of the committee on resolutions developed on both two points, namely, the publication of an official bulletin and the plan to have state associations secure the approval of the National Legislative committee before endorsing proposed insurance legislation.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President, George D. Markham, St. Louis; vice presidents, Thomas H. Geer, Cleveland; W. P. Pattillo, Atlanta, Ga.; John C. North, New Haven, Conn.; A. H. Robinson, Louisville, Ky.; W. L. Stiles, San Antonio, Tex.; H. D. Goodale, Watertown, N. Y.; E. J. Tapping, Milwaukee, Wis.; Walter J. Ball, Tacoma, Wa.; L. W. Childrey, Norfolk, Va.; H. E. Palmer, Omaha, Neb.; A. M. Well, Evansville, Ind.; secretary and treasurer, Frank F. Holmes, Chicago; chairman executive committee, C. H. Woodworth, Buffalo; chairman grievance committee, Merwin Jackson, Toledo, O.; chairman legislative committee, Emmet Rhodes, Auburn, N. Y.; State organization, H. M. Plunkhain, Portland, Me.

JURORS WHO CONVICTED GUTEAU.

Eight Are Still Alive Notwithstanding His Curse Upon Them.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The attempt to assassinate President McKinley has recalled the history of the Gulteau trial and conviction and has suggested the correction of a reported error in regard to the fate of the jury that condemned the assassin to the gallows nearly 20 years ago.
 Time and again it has been published that all of the jurors are dead; that some of them went insane, while others have come to untimely ends in some way. Gulteau, at the time the verdict was rendered, denounced the jury in terms that made the cold chills run down the back of all in the Washington court room at the time, but only four of the famous jury have passed away. The other eight are living in this city.

The trial and peculiar incidents surrounding Gulteau's efforts to escape the penalty of the law have all become history, yet it will ever remain a matter of interest.
 Mr. John P. Hamlin, who was foreman of the jury, is a messenger to Senator Morgan's committee in the United States Senate. He is a hale and hearty old gentleman of over three score and 10 years. He was seen some days ago at his home on Morgan ave. He said, speaking of the event in his life: "Judge Walter Cox had given him charge to the jury and a breathless silence hung over the vast multitude assembled in the court room to witness the closing scene in the judicial investigation of the great national tragedy. The verdict of guilty was announced, whereupon Gulteau arose and said, pointing his finger at the 12 men: 'My blood be upon the head of that jury, and don't you forget it. That is my answer. God will avenge this outrage.'" terward said that she had been abducted by thugs, has confessed that the escapades were part of a scheme to extort $4,000 from her father. She says she was to be married soon and needed the money. Soon after the girl's disappearance the father received a letter demanding the sum mentioned as a ransom. O'Hair said a detective instead. The girl, covered with blood, was found by the roadside, and told a harrowing story of cruelty. She says she smeared her face, hands and clothing with chicken blood.

DELEGATE

To State Convention of Federation of Labor.

At a meeting of the Central Labor Union Thursday evening a communication was read from the secretary of the Ohio Federation of Labor, urging the Akron unions to send delegates to the state convention which meets in Youngstown. Upon motion it was decided to send a delegate and Mr. O. S. Seever was elected to represent the C. L. U. in the convention.

Delegates from the local Federal union reported that their organization would hold a smoker and open meeting in Young's hall, Wednesday evening, Sept. 25.

Mr. Cotternull of Chicago, a member of the Executive Board of the International Carpenters, addressed the local carpenters Thursday evening. A number of C. L. U. delegates attended the meeting.

The general arrangements committee for Labor Day reported that $300 had been cleared from the Labor Day celebration.

Chief Mertz Thursday morning recommended to the City Commissioners that L. A. McAllister and W. A. No-lund be appointed to call service in the Fire department. The Board adopted the recommendation.
